

Wodonga Declaration

Declaration from the floor of the 2018 RAR Conference

There is an urgent need for an Australian Charter of Human Rights which recognises that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights.

We call for The Parliament of Australia to meet, protect, and uphold our legal and moral obligations under International human rights conventions and human rights laws.

- Carried unanimously