

Name:
Address:
.....
..... P'Code

Dear Prime Minister

I join with the voices of people all over Australia and the international community in condemning the needless cruelty in the treatment of a Tamil family who sought refuge in Australia. The refusal of your government to allow the family to return to their home in Biloela after almost 4 years in detention shows serious lack of judgement. It would take just the stroke of a pen to end their suffering.

Sincerely,

Prime Minister
The Hon Scott Morrison
PO Box 6022
Parliament House
Canberra ACT

2600

Name:
Address:
.....
..... P'Code

Dear Prime Minister

I join with the voices of people all over Australia and the international community in condemning the needless cruelty in the treatment of a Tamil family who sought refuge in Australia. The refusal of your government to allow the family to return to their home in Biloela after almost 4 years in detention shows serious lack of judgement. It would take just the stroke of a pen to end their suffering.

Sincerely,

Prime Minister
The Hon Scott Morrison
PO Box 6022
Parliament House
Canberra ACT

2600

Name:
Address:
.....
..... P'Code

Dear Prime Minister

I join with the voices of people all over Australia and the international community in condemning the needless cruelty in the treatment of a Tamil family who sought refuge in Australia. The refusal of your government to allow the family to return to their home in Biloela after almost 4 years in detention shows serious lack of judgement. It would take just the stroke of a pen to end their suffering.

Sincerely,

Prime Minister
The Hon Scott Morrison
PO Box 6022
Parliament House
Canberra ACT

2600

Name:
Address:
.....
..... P'Code

Dear Prime Minister

I join with the voices of people all over Australia and the international community in condemning the needless cruelty in the treatment of a Tamil family who sought refuge in Australia. The refusal of your government to allow the family to return to their home in Biloela after almost 4 years in detention shows serious lack of judgement. It would take just the stroke of a pen to end their suffering.

Sincerely,

Prime Minister
The Hon Scott Morrison
PO Box 6022
Parliament House
Canberra ACT

2600